FOURTEENTH YEAR

THE HENDRICKS MEDAL GOES TO MR. PALMER

Mr. Aseal Palmer of Alberta, Canada, succeeded today in winning the Hendricks medal for public speaking. Four other contestants were in the field and Mr. Palmer won by a very small margin. He talked on "Driving the Human Machine." The other contestants in the list were Lowry Nelson, who talked on the "Qualities of an Executive"; Joseph Quinney who also had the subject, "Driving the Human Machine"; Moses Cowley, discussed the subject, "What Can We Believe; Summer Hatch talked on his allotted time on "The Passing of Family as a Social Organization."

The race for the Hendricks medal is coming to be one of the big features in the year's activity at the Agricultural College and each year more contestants are entering. Two years ago all of the contestants were heard in one tryout, but last year the number had grown so materially that it was found necessary to have a preliminary hearing, this same method has been followed this year and those who tried out today were the winners in a previous trial held last week in which some twenty students were entered.

Mr. Mathoniah Thomas of Salt Lake, and a former member of the Board of the Agricultural College gave two interesting and instructive lectures on irrigation law at the College Wednesday. The lectures were considered of so much worth that a good many of the classes were dismissed to allow students to attend them.

Miss Elenor Wilkinson and Miss Agnes Saunders of the Home Economics department of the Agricultural College, were in Salt Lake on Monday purchasing supplies of china and kitchen utensils for the Women's building.

CONTRACTOR IS TRAPPED IN CAVE IN AND DIES SOON AFTERWARDS

Pocatello, Feb. 23.—Dan Ask, a well known local contractor, was caught in a cave in a forty foot well north of town. The accident occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. The body was recovered last night at 4 o'clock. It is apparent he lived several hours after being buried, as a voice was heard from the well late in the evening.

DeKOVEN

Miss Frederick in a New Role

Although "Robin Hood" is twenty-three years old, and Reginald De Koven has written many other works, this is the first time that he has lent his name to any company presenting his opera. The De Koven Opera Company, composed mostly of Grand Opera singers and headed by Ivy Scott of the Metropolitan Grand Opera, New York, will be heard at the Lyric, Thursday night March 2, and, radical as it may seem, Mr. De Koven is authority for the statement that the vocal balance and calibre of the present company, suits him even better than did the original Bostonians. This is explained by the fact that in those days there was a certain amount of catering to the comedians of the organization, and now, while the comedy roles are not neglected, the music is sung by singers possessing voices suited to the score, who were carefully selected from the grand opera houses of this country and Europe.

AGGIES TAKE CRIMSON BOYS INTO CAMP

The Aggie basketball team took the Crimson crowd into camp Tuesday night in the final windup game between the two local colleges, the score being 21-18 in favor of the farmer boys. The game was one of the closest contests that we have had in basketball this season. The first half resulted, in a score of 9-8 in favor of Jensen's quintet. At the beginning of the second half the Aggies came back strong and before the B. Y. boys got their breath, Kapple had safely landed two field baskets, Smith two and Johnson one. With such a handicap as this it was hard for the Crimson boys to recover, although Williams made a spurt in the last few minutes of play hooping two baskets from the field and Wright secured another, but the gun came too soon to allow the Crimson to overtake the lead of the Aggies even if they had the ability to do so.

The first half was a "tack on" game. The Aggies were out to see that no B. Y. men scored from the field and the B. Y. boys were equally determined that the Aggies would not score and as a result there were three field baskets made in the first half, one by Wright and one by Neely for the Crimson and one by Johnson for the Aggies. Johnson scored five goals from the foul line in the first half and two in the second half securing as many field baskets as any man on either team and coming within one point of having as high a score as Wright for the B. Y. C. who scored twelve points out of the eighteen for his team.

The Smart gymnasium was packed with an enthusiastic crowd as ever gathered to see the local teams fight for supremacy. The season closes giving the first victory to the B. Y. C. and the second victory to the Aggies. This being the case everybody should be satisfied as the honors broke even.

Tommy Fitzpatrick who refereed the game handled the situation in a way that gave universal satisfaction.

The next games for the Logan teams will be Friday and Saturday nights. The B. Y. C. meeting the B. Y. U. Friday night and the A. C. meeting the B. Y. U. Saturday night.

The lineup:
B. Y. C. U. A. C.
Wright .....rt..... McMillan
Nielsen .....lf..... Johnson
Bertson
Williams .....c..... Kapple
Neeley-Cox .....rg..... Price
Maughan
Tolman .....lf..... Smith

MOTIVES MAY BE MISCONSTRUED

It is said that Sheriff John H. Barker is in training to succeed the present county treasurer, and that Assessor John B. Woodward, is in training to succeed the present county sheriff. While we don't care to take the position that the above is the case, as neither of the above gentlemen have made their announcement, we have been reliably informed that the assessor and the sheriff are very close companions of late in the matter of rounding up the property of certain taxpayers. It may be that it is thought advisable to have a body guard in visiting certain individuals during these times of agitation of taxes "too high." If this is the case, it would be unjust to suggest that a switch of official positions is contemplated in the fall election. It can be seen, however, just how the motives of these gentlemen could be misconstrued as they have both served Cache county two terms in their present positions and they may not deem a third term advisable.

CARD OF THANKS

The relatives of James Esplin wish to thank all who so ably assisted during the sickness and in removing the remains to his home in Orderville, with special appreciation for kindness shown by the Agricultural College faculty, his fraternity brothers and the student body.

FATE OF CAMPAIGN ON WESTERN FRONT MAY DEPEND ON PRESENT FIGHTING

SCENE OF FIGHTING IN ARTOIS — CROWN PRINCE RUPERT OF BAVARIA

The black line on the accompanying map shows the approximate position of the battle front in France, where heavy fighting has been going on. The objective of the French drive last September, when the Champagne offensive was also in progress, and of the constant fighting since is the range of hills northeast of Neuville, beginning with hill 140 and running to the southeast. Once in possession of these, General Joffre would command the plain to the eastward, force the evacuation of Lens, with the loss of the railway, and perhaps even compel the Germans to abandon Lille as a result of the breaking of the Artois front. Crown Prince Rupert of Bavaria commands the German troops in this sector of the battle front.

MINING STOCK

Of mining stock I have a store, enough to cover wall and floor of every bedroom, den and hall, and every loft, outhouse and stall. Certificates so nice and fine with printer's ink and gilt they shine, all lithographed with pictures great of men and drills and tunnels straight. And so I said a year ago, "No more I'll buy, not me, no, no; no more of these fake mining stocks backed only by hot air and rocks. But Johnson and some other men asked leave to meet me prompt at ten to make me rich for ever more, once in with them on the ground floor. Again dame fortune seemed to knock, I gobbled up a right nice block. In my tin box beneath the floor I kept it for the price to soar. The note I gave I've had to pay, the stock lies there up to this day, and now my efforts I must bend to meet an "Irish dividend." Fred W. Crockett, in the Salt Lake Tribune.

YELLOWSTONE HIGHWAY TO GO BY ORIGINALLY SELECTED ROUTE

Brigham City, Feb. 23.—Reports purporting to have come from Logan to the effect that retaliatory measures will be taken by the commissioners of Cache county against Box Elder county regarding the Yellowstone Highway, are said to be without foundation. The reports state that Box Elder county is endeavoring to divert the Yellowstone Highway to go by way of Malad and Downey, Idaho, while the official route is thru Box Elder canyon to Cache county. County Commissioner T. H. Blackburn said that nothing had been said regarding the Yellowstone Highway officially, and that no steps had been taken to divert the route. The only way that Box Elder officials can account for the attitude of the Cache county officials is that a small sum of money was expended in connecting up a neglected stretch of road between East Portage and the Idaho state line last summer.

HAWORTH ENJOYS FIRST DAY OUT OF PRISON IN LAST FIFTEEN YEARS

Ogden, Feb. 23.—After having spent more than fifteen years in the state penitentiary, Nicholas C. Haworth declares he has enjoyed to the utmost his first twenty-four hours, after having been paroled yesterday afternoon. Yesterday and today members of the Haworth family in Ogden held an almost continuous reunion. Haworth went today to the farm of his brother Monty Haworth, west of Ogden.

The former liferformer informed his friends he has encountered numerous changes during his fifteen years in prison and added that he enjoyed comparing the realities with what he has seen in his mind's eye after reading accounts of improvement and hearing the stories told by prisoners recently sentenced.

STATE WIDE CRUSADE AGAINST COYOTES IS WAGED BY SHEEPMEN

Salt Lake, Feb. 23.—With every county in the state in which coyotes are a menace well organized for the fight, hundreds of the pests are being exterminated, according to reports received by C. B. Stewart, secretary of the Utah Woolgrowers association.

Mr. Stewart said the cattlemen and sheepmen in all parts of Utah are offering bounties and employing trappers. He said his office is in a position to obtain information of any appearance of the dreaded rabies in Utah.

THE SCHUMAN QUINTETT

The Schuman Quintet which makes its first appearance to a Logan audience on Thursday evening comes as a result of the popularity tendered them in other sections of the country. Knocking the popularity out of ragtime is their slogan and considering the widespread appeal of the rag time harmony it appears to be no mediocre task. According to editorial comments they have accomplished it in other sections, however and are willing to prove the same to this community.

Dispersing ragtime by substituting an inferior grade of music is not their feature. The old master presented in a new and pleasing manner by artists who are really masters perform the wonder.

All of the members of the quintet have had wide experience in both lyceum and orchestra work all of them have studied under some of the best instructors both in Europe and America.

A new feature of their entertainment is the specially constructed reed organ which they carry about with them and which adds to the quintet to make it sound as a complete symphony orchestra.

This quintet comes as the last number of the U. A. C.—B. Y. C. Lyceum course. Thursday evening at 8:15 in the Tabernacle. General admission is 25 cents.

JAPANESE FLEET WITH MANY AIRCRAFT ARRIVES IN MEDITERRANEAN

Copenhagen, Feb. 23.—German newspapers print dispatches from Italy stating that a Japanese fleet has arrived safely in the Mediterranean sea, together with a direct number of aircraft.

Two Japanese steamers have been torpedoed and sunk in the Mediterranean the liner Yasaka Maru and the freighter Kenkoku Maru.

On January 3, announcement was made at Tokyo by the Jiji Shimpō, that a squadron of Japanese warships was to be dispatched to the Suez Canal, presumably for the purpose of protecting Japanese shipping. The armored cruisers Kasuga, Tokiwa and Chitose were mentioned as having been assigned to this service.

Musical talent that cannot be excelled may be heard tonight at the Tabernacle. The Schuman Quintet comes to us very highly recommended. Admission to the public is only 25 cents. Tonight at the Tabernacle at 8 o'clock.

BASKETBALL SEASON CLOSSES THIS WEEK END

The last basketball games of the season of any consequence will be played Friday and Saturday nights of this week. The game Friday night will be at the B. Y. gymnasium between the local church school team and the B. Y. U. of Provo. This will be the first meeting of these two teams this year, and as the B. Y. C. team is in good condition, the local townspeople look for Jensen's team to spring a surprise on Coach Roberts and his quintet.

Saturday night the B. Y. U. will meet the Aggies at the Smart gymnasium. The Aggies were pretty badly beaten by the Provo team when they made their southern trip early in the season but the Aggies always show a disposition to "come back" and we are sure that the game Saturday night in the Smart gymnasium will be very closely contested.

The B. Y. U. team, however, has always been made up of good players. It seems that the basketballers in the southern part of the state have but very little else to do besides play basketball and as basketball is the major sport in the church schools, the B. Y. U. team is made up of some of the best basketball material in the state, and as a consequence, give all comers a pretty hard run at all times.

MENDON SOCIAL CIRCLES INDICATE ACTIVENESS

Mendon, Feb. 23.—Mrs. J. H. Watkins Jr., entertained the Gloriette Club, Wednesday evening. The time was spent in playing various card games with dancing and music. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Wood, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Neph Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. William Kidman.

One of the gayest skating parties of the season was the one Thursday evening. The ice was fine, there being several miles of fine skating. A bonfire was made on the ice and a dainty lunch was served at about 11 o'clock. Those who enjoyed the affair were the Misses Marvel and Montana Hancock, Vera Larsen, Orpha Larsen, Alice Sorenson, Algie Barrett, Nora Ahrens, Dollie Hill; Messrs Lyn Longstroth, Guy Larsen, Harry Haggett, Elmer Paul, Irvin Larsen, Elmer Jensen, Cyril Bird, Miles Larsen.

Mrs. J. A. Gardner entertained with a candy pull Monday evening. The time was spent in making candy, card playing and dancing. The decorations were carried out in valentine effect. On Wednesday evening the home dramatic company, will entertain with a splendid play. This will be the best effort of the season.

The basketball game last Wednesday night between the Mendon team and the Wellsville boys was a fast game from beginning to end. The amusement hall was crowded with people who came out to witness the game. It was one of the roughest and fastest games ever played on the Mendon floor, but the Mendon boys came out victorious, the final score being 22-26. The Wellsville boys went home sore as is the custom with them, but the Mendon boys can beat them anytime and on any floor.

Mrs. Winnie Barber of Garland is visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardman.

Miss Stella Bowen of Fielding is
